

HAY WARNS LI HUNG CHANG STICKS TO HIS ULTIMATUM

Free Communication with Conger at Peking Demanded, as a Matter of Right, and Not as a Favor, to the United States.

UTTER RUIN STARES CHINA IN THE FACE

No Negotiations Will Be Listened to Until the Foreign Ministers Are at Liberty--The Rapid Advance of Allied Armies.

Washington, Aug. 2.—[Special Telegram]—An official telegram to the United States embassies at Berlin, London, Paris, Rome, St. Petersburg and Tokio was given out this morning, which is a reply to the suggestion of Li Hung Chang that the ministers might be sent under escort to Tien Tsin provided the powers engage not to march on Peking, which being declined was followed by Chang inquiring if free communication with the ministers was established the powers would not advance pending negotiations. This is the telegram:

"Goodnow, Shanghai, I do not think it is expedient to submit the proposition of Li to the other powers. "Free communication with our representatives at Peking is demanded as a matter of absolute right and not as a favor. Since the Chinese government admits that it possesses the power to give that communication it puts itself in an unfriendly attitude by denying it. "No negotiations seem advisable until the Chinese government shall have put the diplomatic representatives of the powers in full and free communication and removed from danger of lives liberty."

"I would urge Li and earnestly advise the imperial authorities to place themselves in friendly communication and co-operation with the relief expedition. They assume heavy responsibilities in acting otherwise. Hay."

Chinese in Strong Position. Tien Tsin, Aug. 2.—[Special Cablegram.]—Gen. Gaselee, the British commander, is reconnoitering near Pei Tsang, nine miles north. He reports that the Chinese under Tung and May hold a strong position at Pei Tsang.

Chinese Massing at Peking. Shanghai, Aug. 2.—[Special Cablegram.]—Gen. Liping Heng has given command for the four Chinese armies in the Yangtse region to proceed to Peking.

ALLIES ON THE ROAD TO PEKIN. Eighteen Miles Have Been Covered by the Foreign Forces.

London, August 2.—Eighteen of the miles that divide the allied forces at Tien Tsin from the hard pressed legations at Peking have been traversed by the relief column, and it is the hope that the advancing force can reach Peking by Tuesday. It all depends, however, on the prowess of the Chinese soldiers, Chinese Blocking the Advance From Shanghai and Tien Tsin come reports that the Chinese are gathering in force and erecting intrenchments to oppose the advance of the allied army. Fifteen thousand Chinese are encamped between Peitsung and Yangtsun, and are being strongly reinforced.

Need the Lesson of Taku. The lesson learned at Taku is still fresh in their minds, however, and the rank and file of the Chinese army fear the foreign devil as much as they hate them. Meanwhile the defenders of the legations at Peking are being allowed to rest after months of fighting.

Safety Reported at Shanghai. The Daily Mail correspondent at Shanghai, telegraphing July 31, states Li Hung Chang has received a decree dated July 28 commanding him to inform the consuls that the ministers at Peking were safe on that date.

Russia in War of Its Own. Meanwhile Russia is waging a war of its own along the frontier. It is reported that a Russian force of seventy men, which arrived at Charbin in Manchuria was attacked by artillery while the Chinese officers were visiting the commander, and that twenty Russians were killed and six wounded. The Chinese are reported to be advancing on Charbin from all sides.

Chinese Prepare to Oppose. A dispatch to the Times from Tien Tsin, July 28, says: "The viceroy and his staff are reported at Yangtun with General Sung. General Mas' forces reported that the Chinese troops are increasing and intrenching but that the allied forces are sufficient to scatter the enemy south of Peking and relieve the besieged."

Further delay in the advance will jeopardize the success of the expedition as the rains are becoming heavy and are raising serious difficulties on the road to the capital, and the moral effect of the recent successes encourages the enemy to retaguard."

Yuan Fighting Boxers. A dispatch to the Times from Shanghai Aug 1 says: "A telegram from Yuan Shikai to Sheng states that Tung Fuh Siang's troops, accompanied by a large number of Boxers have marched south from Peking and engaged Yuan's forces near Tachau. The result is not stated."

Lin Chiatun In Revolt. A dispatch to the Times from Hongkong, July 31, says:

"Lin Chiatun, who was under arrest, has raised the standard of revolt at Pechenghsien, fifty miles south of Chuchau, on the northern border of Fokien. "Disquieting reports have been received from Sudan and northern Kwang Tung. "Nothing is known definitely of Li Hung Chang's successor to the viceroyalty of the Kwang's."

MOSHER EXPLAINS HIS LONG ABSENCE

Not Wishing to Be Sent to Jail, He Puts in a Few Hours Looking for Bondsmen.

Chicago, August 2.—John D. Mosher, the officer from the East Chicago Avenue police station, who was indicted with Patrick Sheehan, a brother officer, on Monday, July 23, for robbing Hugh McDougall of $150 at Sharpshooters' Park on July 4, surrendered himself to his attorneys yesterday afternoon, and conducted them to Judge Hutchinson's court, and supplied a bail bond of $2,500 for his appearance.

Mosher declares that he has not been hiding or attempting to escape the police and deputy sheriffs, and that when he learned of the indictment he went out in various parts of the city looking for bondsmen while the officers were hunting for him.

MOUNT RAINIER IN ERUPTION

Indications of Volcanic Activity Are Seen From Tacoma

Tacoma, Wash., August 2.—Signs of activity were noticed today on Mount Rainier situated near this city. At first there were noticed, floating about the lofty summit of the volcano, masses of black which were thought to be clouds.

When examined through powerful glasses, however, they appeared to be dense columns of smoke, and the belief is that they came from the crater.

Mount Rainier is over 14,000 feet high, and accurate observations from this distance are impossible. Some unmistakable sign of eruption, however, is expected to make its appearance soon.

Washington, Aug. 2.—[Special Telegram]—The president and party arrived from Canton at eight this morning, and McKinley immediately held a conference with Long and Root for over an hour. Afterward Long said he had no dispatches of interest and merrily discussed the situation.

London, Aug. 2.—[Special Cablegram]—A Pretoria dispatch says the report is current that Commander Botha has surrendered. His command has recently been hard pressed.

BIG OCEAN LINERS IN A GREAT RACE

FOUR STEAMERS TO COMPETE FOR CARRYING THE MAILS.

Fat Government Contract Will Be the Prize—Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, Deutschland, New York and Oceanic the Competitors—Fast Time is Expected Next Week.

New York, Aug. 2.—The four biggest, best and speediest of all the great ocean liners will start from this port next Tuesday and Wednesday on a race across the Atlantic. Each will carry mail and on time made in the rush across will depend a great deal in the making of the next contracts for speeding letters over the seas.

Of course nobody connected with the boats will call the coming dash a race. Such a term has a rather nervous sound. But all the same, the four great liners will strain every piece of steel in them to beat records and one another.

The Rival Greyhounds. The four great leviathans that are to make the run, with their dimensions and horse power, are:

Horse Power	Length	B'dth	D'pth
Deutschland.....33,000	682	68	41
Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse.....27,000	640	66	42
Oceanic.....27,000	635	63	41
New York.....20,000	580	61	42

The distances in miles to the first ports touched by the monster ships are: Plymouth.....2,302 Southampton.....3,100 Queenstown.....2,800 This great race will start at 10 o'clock when the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse of the North German Lloyd Line will leave the Concord pier and start for Bremen via Cherbourg and Southampton. The next morning at the same hour the big Deutschland of the Hamburg-American line will start from Hoboken for Hamburg, calling at Plymouth and Cherbourg as she goes up the English Channel.

One American Liner.

About the time the Deutschland leaves her pier the New York of the American line, which will carry the bulk of the mail, will start to Southampton direct. At 3:30 the same afternoon the Oceanic, the largest ship in the world, will leave the White Star pier to go to Liverpool by way of Queenstown. Four such vessels have never left port for a 3,000 mile race within a comparatively short time of each other.

ATTEMPT MADE TO KILL SERBIA'S KING

Rumor From Belgrade That Alexander Was Shot at, But Uninjured, While Out Driving.

London, August 2.—The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Chronicle, writing yesterday, says:

"A rumor has reached here from Belgrade that an attempt was made to assassinate King Alexander this afternoon while he was driving through the town. It is said that he was shot at, but was not injured. The rumor is unconfirmed."

WHO FIRED THE SHOT?

Friends of Powers Say at the Proper Time They Will Disclose That Mystery.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 2.—[Special Telegram.]—The defense continued its examination of Stamper and several other witnesses, but the testimony was mild in character. Rumor says that at proper time a witness will be sprung who will not only clear Powers, but locate the man who fired the shot.

NEW LIFE FOR ANARCHY

Chicago, Aug. 2.—There is to be a rebirth of anarchy, according to Mrs. Lucy Parsons, and the new activity is to find its climax in an international congress of anarchists in Paris next month. The anarchists of Chicago will meet locally next Sunday to express their approval of the "removal" of King Humbert and incidentally will consider the preparation for the coming world's congress. This information was obtained from Mrs. Parsons in an interview last evening.

The congress, according to Mrs. Parsons, has been called by the heads of the anarchist organizations in the different countries of Europe and in America, and will be attended by representatives from every country where the anarchists maintain an organization.

"What is the purpose of the congress?" said Mrs. Parsons, repeating the question put to her. "To map out a plan of action for the anarchists of the world, to bring the followers of anarchy, into closer touch, and to perfect a worldwide organization."

"And does that mean that the anarchists will plan fresh outbreaks?"

Mrs. Parsons black eyes snapped but she ignored the question until it was repeated, when she said:

FEAR OF BLOODSHED IN NORTH CAROLINA

HOT AND BITTER ELECTION IN PROGRESS THERE TODAY.

Overshadowing Issue of the Campaign Proposed and Constitutional Amendment to Disfranchise the Negroes—Militia in Readiness to Go to Any Part of the State.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 2.—On the morning of the state election being held today there is the gravest fear of bloodshed in the districts most closely contested.

The fight is between the republicans and populists fused, on one side and the democrats on the other.

The overshadowing issue of the campaign is the proposed constitutional amendment, backed by the democrats which is intended to disfranchise the negroes.

The democrats claim a majority for their state ticket, and for the amendment of from 60,000 to 40,000. The fusionists are making no claims but it is thought they will do well even to capture a small minority in the legislature.

Democratic Purposes.

F. M. Simmons, chairman of the democratic state committee said last night:

The great battle for white supremacy in North Carolina has been fought, and in less than twenty-four hours we shall know the result.

We are ready for the ballots. The indications are that we shall poll the biggest vote ever polled in the state. The Aycock ticket will be elected, and the amendment will be adopted by the largest majority ever given in this state since the war, and we shall have a majority in both branches of the legislature.

There is no animosity on the part of the democrats toward the negro. We simply want him to know and understand his place.

If his miserable white allies, who seek to use him to ride into office, would let him alone he and the white people would get along well enough together. Our majority will be such an overwhelming verdict of the white people of the state in favor of eliminating the ignorant and vicious negro vote that this race question will forever hereafter be regarded as a settled question in North Carolina.

Militia in Readiness

The Governor's Guards are in waiting at the armory, ready to respond to a call from any part of the state.

Congressman J. D. Bellamy having declared that United States Senator Marion Butler should be forcibly expelled from the state, the senator defies the congressman to expel him. The fear of mob violence has kept the senator from going into forty counties during the campaign, and will prevent him from going home to vote.

DELANAV ASSEMBLY OPENS ITS SESSIONS

The Rev. Sam Jones the Principal Speaker on the First Day—Open Air Concert Given.

Delavan, Wis., August 2.—Fully 3,000 persons attended the opening of the third annual session of the Delavan Lake assembly yesterday.

The Y. M. C. A. band of Janesville gave an open air concert and assisted Professor S. W. Mount of Chicago. The Rev. Sam Jones was the principal attraction. He lectured on "The Battle of Life and How to Win It." Miss Katherine Oliver gave a dramatic entertainment last night.

Governor Scofield and James G. Monahan will be the speakers today, which as Republican day. On account of the illness of the Rev. N. D. Hillis he has arranged with Dr. F. W. Guesenius to take his place on the program on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. The attendance promises to far exceed that of previous years.

PLAN FOR WORLD UNION OF PEACE

Congress in Paris Seeks to Utilize the Conflict in China to That End.

Paris, Aug. 2.—At the interparliamentary peace congress today Count Estournelles, a deputy, submitted the following resolution which received the unanimous vote of the committee and is set for discussion tomorrow:

"This congress expresses the wish that the armed intervention of the powers for the just repression of the bloody massacres in China shall not end in new conquests which may bring on universal war nor in enterprises disastrous to the future economical, social and political situation of the states of Europe but on the contrary, that the present intervention shall be the commencement of an organized and durable union between these states."

LOUISVILLE SHOWS A BIG INCREASE

Population Is 104,731, Showing An Increase of 27 Per Cent. In Ten Years.

Washington, Aug. 4.—[Special Telegram]—The Louisville, Ky., population as officially announced is two hundred and four thousand, seven hundred and thirty one, an increase of twenty seven per cent. The last census showed an increase of thirty per cent.

BRESCHI IS UNDER TORTURE TRY TO MAKE HIM CONFESS

Blinding Light Flashed Into His Eyes to Prevent Sleep, and Other Cruelties Not Exceeding the Limits of the Law.

PAIN ONLY MAKES THE ASSASSIN LAUGH

All Europe Will Unite to Suppress the Murderous Societies—America United to Help Crush the Reds--Malatesta Has Disappeared.

London, Aug. 2.—[Special Cablegram]—Advices from Milan say that Bresci, the assassin, is confined in an iron straight jacket and tightly handcuffed. Blinding light, it is said, is flashed into his eyes preventing sleep and he is tortured in other ways, not exceeding the limits of the law, to get him to confess the names of his accomplices. The regime remains indifferent and refuses to answer questions.

When stung by the fiercest pangs of physical pain under the torture he laughs at his tormentors and defies them to kill him.

He says he expects death and the sooner it comes the better he will like it. Under no pain he declares, however, will he give away the details of the plan for killing King Humbert.

Threaten Loubet and the Shah

Paris, August 2.—[Special Cablegram]—As the Shah of Persia started out this morning a man approached him brandishing a stick and shouting, "Long live the children of the people." He was arrested and found to possess a revolver. He refused his name or address.

When the Shah's assailant was searched a handkerchief marked "128-line regiment" and a newspaper showing the Shah's route to Sevres was found.

The Shah took the attempt on his life coolly and asked that the would-be assassin's photograph be taken. The trip of the Shah to Sevres was without further incident.

Judging from his account the assassin comes from the south of France. He is dressed like a carpenter and is about twenty years old.

The attempt to use his revolver was frustrated by the Shah's grand vizier who knocked up his arm.

The police are taking great precautions to protect Loubet. It is asserted that an anarchist order is out to kill the president of the French republic.

Monza, Aug. 2.—In the midst of a touching demonstration of welcome to King Victor Emmanuel, two strangers cried "Vive l'Anarchia." They were arrested and narrowly escaped lynching at the hands of the furious crowd. The king is in deep grief. His dejection is pitiful.

Elberfeld, Prussia, Aug. 2.—Giuseppe Bernardi, accused of declaring that Emperor William's turn to be assassinated would come next, was arrested here. He denied the charge.

Europe to Unite.

London, August 2.—All Europe will act in concert to suppress the murderous anarchistic societies. England, which has hitherto afforded an asylum to the refugees of other nations, will probably be a party to the international agreement.

The United States will also be invited to join, and in the present friendly condition of the associations of America with the European governments, it is likely that effective steps will be taken to crush the reds.

OFFICERS HUNT FOR MALATESTA

Wherever This Arch Conspirator Appears There is Blood.

New York, August 2.—The Journal's special cablegrams from Milan, Italy, state that King Humbert's assassin, Bresci, was subjected to most rigid examination at Monza to-day. Then, under strong guard, he was taken to Milan.

The murderer was closely pressed to tell the names of his accomplices. He denied that he had any.

He swore he went to Italy by way of Paris, that he had no traveling companions, and that he met no anarchists in Paris. But he admitted he was a friend of Malatesta and Ciancabilla, anarchist agitators, writers and organizers in Paterson, N. J.

Bresci declared with affected indignation that neither Malatesta nor Ciancabilla knew of his purpose to kill King Humbert.

The police say the letters found on the assassin practically establish the fact that King Humbert's death was the result of a plot hatched in the Italian colony in Paterson, and that Bresci undertook the crime after the man who won the deadly lot turned faint-hearted.

Several letters found on Bresci are signed "Fabris." Thus, it is certain that the plot which has shaken Europe was born in an anarchistic nest in Paterson, and was nursed by Enrico Malatesta.

Whenever this Malatesta appears or disappears a ruler is killed or an attempt is made to kill one. Malatesta was sent to prison early in 1898. On September 10, 1898, Empress Elizabeth of Austria was stabbed to the heart by an Italian anarchist, Luigi Luccheni.

Bresci was Malatesta's student and associate in Paterson. Bresci and Malatesta disappeared. Bresci shot down a King.

A New York anarchist, who says he knows Malatesta, says he hurriedly left this country six weeks ago. He announced he was going to England; it is more probable he went to Italy. Italian anarchists in London said early this morning that this prince of assassins lately arrived there. They do not know where he is now, they say.

Bresci's Wife Is Destitute.

New York, Aug. 2.—Capt. Usher of the Hoboken police said that Mrs. Bresci, wife of the assassin of King Humbert, was in such a nervous condition that she has gone to the house of a friend for rest. The woman is destitute. She still tries to hope that the man arrested in Italy is not her husband, but she admits that there is little reason for such hope. She will be kept under police surveillance pending developments in her husband's case.

Accident to John McArthur of Emerald Grove While Repairing a Windmill Yesterday.

John McArthur of Emerald Grove seriously injured his left hand yesterday afternoon while attempting to repair a windmill on his farm.

Mr. McArthur mounted the tower of the mill for the purpose of putting it in shape to work. In some way his left hand was caught in the gearing of the mill and badly lacerated, the tendons being cut and torn.

The injured man was brought to this city and Dr. W. H. Judd dressed the injured member. The hurt will lay him up for some time. The cut is in a dangerous place, but the doctor hopes there will be no serious results.

THE DINGLEY TARIFF

GREAT SUCCESS OF MR. MCKINLEY'S ADMINISTRATION

Currency Reform, the War Loan of 1898 and the Settlement of the Pacific Railroad Indebtedness Also to His Credit.

Four achievements in the management of the public finances and revenues under the administration of President McKinley stand out with marked prominence.

First in point of success is the Dingley tariff; second, the reform in the currency; third, the war loan of 1898, and, fourth, the settlement of the Pacific railroad indebtedness.

Perhaps never before in the history of this country have so many important fiscal achievements been accomplished in so brief a time. With the exception of the Pacific railroad settlement these events bear to a considerable degree relationship to each other. Underlying the success of the war loan of 1898 and the reform in the currency was the basis of prosperity established by prompt and effective tariff legislation. The president well understood the necessity for speedy modification in the tariff. Within 48 hours after his inauguration he issued a proclamation for an extra session of congress to assemble March 15, 1897. The brief message sent to congress when it convened on that day clearly demonstrated the urgent necessity for prompt action.

The house of representatives promptly responded to the president's message. On the same day in which it was read in the house the late Mr. Dingley of Maine, chairman of the committee on ways and means, introduced the new tariff bill. Such unusual expedition had been made possible only by the untiring work of the members of the committee on ways and means for several months previous.

The bill was passed in the house of representatives March 31, 1897, less than a month after the inauguration of President McKinley and two weeks after congress had convened in extra session. It passed the senate July 7, 1897, with amendments. Two days later its consideration was begun by a conference committee of the two houses, and it finally passed the house July 19 and the senate July 24.

It became a law on the latter day, when the president signed the bill.

Thus, within five months (no other tariff law was ever passed in so short a time) after the inauguration of the president a new tariff law was placed on the statute books. Under its beneficent influences, the United States has enjoyed a commercial and industrial revival the greatest in its history. The hopes of the president, as expressed in his message, have been realized; ample revenues were provided for the ordinary expenses of the government and in providing them duties were levied upon foreign products so as to preserve the home markets; manufactures have revived and increased; agriculture has been relieved and encouraged; domestic and foreign commerce has been increased; mining and building have been aided and developed, and more liberal wages have been paid to labor.

Under the operation of the Wilson act from Sept. 1, 1894, to July 24, 1897, a period of 35 months, there was a total deficit of $108,003,243. This deplorable state of the revenues was largely responsible for that lack of confidence which prolonged the hard times inaugurated by the panic of 1893.

The Dingley tariff became a law July 24, 1897. Under its operation ample revenues have been provided, as urged by President McKinley. During the period of 32 months between July 24, 1897, and April 1, 1900, the receipts of the government from all sources, exclusive of Pacific railroad items, were $1,224,326,003. Deducting from these receipts the treasury department's estimate of collections under the war revenue act, amounting to $183,708,538, there were net receipts of $1,040,617,465. The expenditures for the same period aggregated $1,366,663,406, and deducting the treasury department's estimate of war expenditures of $372,000,000 the net expenditures for the period stand at $904,603,406, leaving for these 32 months' operation of the Dingley tariff an excess of net receipts over net expenditures of $45,954,064.

The president urged that the new duties be so levied as "to revive and increase manufactures." In the fiscal year 1897 the imports for the consumption of articles in a crude condition which enter into the various processes of domestic industry amounted to $207,268,153, and in the three years 1895, 1896 and 1897 averaged less than $200,000,000 annually, while in the calendar year 1899 the imports of this class amounted to $267,493,950, an increase of nearly $70,000,000 over the average for the three years of low tariff, in which many of these articles, notably wool, were upon the free list. At present the importation of manufacturers' materials is running at the rate of $28,000,000 per month, or more than 50 per cent higher than the monthly average in the year prior to the enactment of the Dingley law.

The president also urged that the new duties should be so levied as "to relieve and encourage agriculture." That agriculture has been relieved and encouraged is shown by the increased prices for agricultural products, all of which have materially advanced in the home market, and by the large increase in exportation in the products of agriculture, which in the fiscal year 1899 were $100,000,000 greater than in the fiscal year 1897 and in 1898 were $200,000,000 in excess of those of 1897.

The message also recommended that the new duties should be so levied as "to aid and develop mining." That mining has been greatly encouraged is amply shown by the figures relating to the two great mining industries, coal and iron. The coal production of 1899 exceeds 200,000,000 tons against 179,090,000 in 1897 and 171,000,000 in 1898 and has placed the United States at the head of the world's producers of this article, our product in 1899 being greater than that of any other country. The pig iron production in 1899 was 13,020,703 tons against 9,652,680 tons in 1897 and 8,923,127 tons in 1898. In pig iron, as in coal, the United States now holds the first place in the world's production.

PROSPECT PLEASANT.

But Republicans Must Guard Against Overconfidence.

From the July circular of Justice, Bateman & Co., wool commission merchants of Philadelphia, we extract the following:

"The recent action of the national Republican convention in Philadelphia, in endorsing the present administration, and, by the renomination of the president, insuring a continuance of protection to American industries, removes any probability of tariff changes and should in itself give great encouragement to owners of wool."

Owners of wool and sheep throughout the United States have every reason to feel encouraged by the political and commercial outlook. The immense stocks of foreign wools which were rushed into this country free of all duty under the free trade provisions of the Wilson tariff have well nigh been absorbed in manufacturing and the period of loss and poverty brought on in consequence of "the crime of 1894" has given place to prosperity.

Owners of sheep in the United States can look forward with equanimity to the continuation of these favorable conditions. But there should not be too much of equanimity. What is needed and expected of sheep raisers and wool growers is some earnest, hard work among neighbors and friends not engaged in the sheep and wool industry. In this way alone can the threatened return to free trade in wool be averted. Free trade in wool is distinctly involved in the election of Mr. Bryan as president of the United States, and the sheep raisers and wool growers throughout the country should govern themselves accordingly.

BRYAN THE POPULIST.

No True Democrat Can Support His Wild Theories.

We can imagine the gold Democrat, who has been wanting to get back into the party and had about made up his mind that he could stomach even Bryan, reading the Populist platform. It will certainly give him a shock. He will realize again, as he did four years ago, that principle is stronger than party. He will decide that the man who can stand upon that platform is not a man who can command his vote. Whatever his disgust for McKinley may be, or his fear of expansion, or his antipathy to imperialism, or his love of Democracy, the Populist platform, on which Bryan stands more naturally than he can stand on any Democratic platform, will give him pause.

It brings up before his sound business judgment the same images of woolly haired and woolly witted fanaticism which frightened him in 1896. Bryan as a Democrat, poor one that he is and badly as he has twisted the principles of the party to fit his theories, is not so bad but that he might be endured by honest voters who love Democracy and hate Republicanism. Bryan the Populist, however, will prove too much for most of them.—Waterbury (Conn.) American.

Porto Rico Money.

Charles E. Ruell, ex-secretary of the United States special commission to Porto Rico, writes that "under Spanish rule the money of the island was subject to the most extraordinary fluctuations. When the planter needed money to pay his help and for supplies, the peso would be held at 60 cents in gold. As soon as the money had passed into the hands of the man whom the planter had owed, the value of the same peso declined to 42 cents. This ruinous variation in money has been made to give place to certainty and stability by changing the currency of the island to United States currency. No American need feel ashamed of the course which the United States has pursued in dealing with Porto Rico."

Should Not Forget.

In 1894, during Democratic administration, the cotton mills of the United States consumed only 10 per cent of the entire cotton crop. Last year they used over 27 per cent, and this year they will use about one-third of the whole crop—more than twice as much as in 1894. Workers in the cotton mills should not forget that Republican administration means double the quantity of work and higher wages besides.—Goshen (N. Y.) Democrat.

Value of Farm Crops.

Note the difference in values of the following three farm crops in 1896 and 1899:

	1896.	1899.
Corn	$491,067,000	$665,564,000
Wheat	$10,093,990	$37,104,000
Oats	$32,455,000	$215,416,000
Total	$533,616,000	$1,218,084,000

Our Ships Decreasing.

The statistics of American shipbuilding for the fiscal year just closed will disprove the free trade assertion that our tonnage in the foreign trade is being rapidly increased. Truth is, it is being rapidly decreased, although our foreign trade has greatly increased.

Not at All Likely.

Every corn fed steer in Nebraska is now worth $12 to $16 more than in 1896. Farmers in that state will hardly vote for Democratic times again.

THE TRICK.

A TRICK may involve deceit or it may be a display of peculiar skill. There is deceit in some soaps, but there is none in Ivory Soap; it is a display of peculiar skill. It will stand any test and can be relied upon to do all that is claimed for it.

Royal Throne Is Missing.

Paris, Aug. 2.—An amusing incident in connection with the marriage of King Alexander of Serbia is that the wedding had to be postponed on account of the throne being at the Paris exposition to embellish the Serbian exhibit. So the throne has been packed back to Belgrade as quickly as possible. The wedding awaits its arrival. It is stated the royal couple are coming to Paris in the course of their wedding trip. Louis Windmiller of New York stated that he has just come from Serbia and the merchants fear trouble will arise on account of the king that will affect business very unfavorably.

Choose a Foot as Their Chief.

Wichita, Kas., Aug. 2.—About 600 full-blooded Creek Indians have withdrawn from their government, whose capital is located at Okmulgee, and settled in the mountains on Grand river, where they organized a new form of government, the policy of which is to oppose land allotment, mixing with white people or half-breeds. Chinabba Hayo, a full-blooded Indian poet, was elected chief, and the inaugural ceremonies were entirely devoid of civilized decorations. The Indians have ordered all whites from their district, and many of the latter have fled from the nation.

Justice Smyth Is Sinking.

New York, Aug. 2.—Reports received from intimate friends of Justice Frederick Smyth, who has been ill for some time at Atlantic City, say the justice is rapidly sinking. His friends had slight hopes of his recovery last evening.

Killed at a Grade Crossing.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—Peter Schmidt, 37 years old, 840 Lincoln avenue, while driving a wagon over the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad crossing at Oakdale avenue was struck by a train and instantly killed.

A SPLENDID TICKET.

The Republican county ticket is now in the field. The nominations are all good ones, as a glance at the list of names at the head of this column will show. The selections were made in harmony and with the best of good feeling. No sore spots were left, as the contests, in all cases, were friendly. The honors were equally and equitably distributed throughout the county, and, in all respects, the ticket is ideal.

Rock county republicans are united and harmonious. There is no vestige of friction in any way, and the majority, this fall, will be the largest in the history of the state.

The practice of throwing refuse in the river should be stopped. Decayed fruit, vegetables and the like do not tend to improve public health, while tin cans, ashes, etc., add nothing to the value of the water power. Rock river is worth more than money to this city, and it should not be filled up or used as a common dumping place for ill smelling substances that should be hauled off and buried. There is a city ordinance governing the matter, and it should be enforced.

When General Bragg speaks everyone knows what he says. The bluff old Iron Brigade warrior doesn't mince matters, and his refusal to take the stump for Bryan is absolute, plain and unconditional.

The state tax commission has invited the telephone companies to call the commission up, and if the tax proposition isn't all right, in all probability the commission will call the telephone people down.

"For seventeen years," says Alderman McLean, "I have been trying to get the C. & N. W. stockyards taken care of." Ever try chloride of lime, Mr. Alderman?

If the smell from the stockyards was thrown into the river, however, no complaints would be made by the vigilant guardians of the public interest.

There is only one way to do things, and that is the right way. This reasoning applies to the municipality as much as to the individual.

A dozen or two more counties LaFollettized yesterday.

Verily, as the poet says, "something must be done."

Is life so dear, or peace so sweet as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, almighty God! I know not what course others may take, but as for me, give me liberty or give me death!—Patrick Henry.

NOTES OF WOMAN'S WORK.

Mrs. Ida May Bennet, the wife of the subchief of the Choctaw tribe, was one of the official delegates from Indian Territory at the Republican convention recently held in Philadelphia. Mrs. Bennet is the only woman ever chosen at a political meeting in Indian Territory. She has traveled widely and is a graduate from an eastern college. Mrs. Bennet is a full blood Choctaw Indian.

A movement is on foot to organize another association in connection with the Grand Army of the Republic. It is to be composed entirely of women and will take in those who at the time of the war were either too young to go to the front as nurses or had no male relatives in the northern army, but who aided the boys in blue by preparing lint and bandages for the wounded soldiers and by taking food and flowers to the various hospitals and refreshment stands. Mrs. Agnes Kornacker of Philadelphia is at the head of the movement.

When the trustees of the State university at Columbia, Mo., decided to introduce a department of domestic science, they were at a loss to find a suitable person to fill the chair. They applied to the Pratt Institute of New York, and Miss Zabriskie of Chicago was recommended. She made a trip to Columbia and was engaged at a handsome salary. She is the daughter of a New Jersey clergyman and is of Dutch extraction. She was educated at Lake Forest university and received her technical training at the Pratt Institute. Miss Zabriskie has taught cooking in the Deolittle school in Chicago for two years.

Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, wife of the famous lecturer, has since her recent election to the chair of the California State Federation, which is just 5 months old and numbers 5,000 women members, become the subject of her husband's wit. Whenever the lecturer writes a letter nowadays, he signs it "Robert J. Burdette, husband of M. DAME THE PRESIDENT."

A distinct honor to American womanhood is the election of Miss Jane Adams of Chicago as president of the jury of social economy at the Paris exposition.

Sarah Grand, the authoress, declines to be accused of calling any man names. She thinks the heroic thing about man is the way he faces life, not death.

Mrs. Ernest Seton Thompson, whose new book, "A Woman Tenderfoot," is soon to appear, is the wife of the well known "Animal Man," whose stories about the "Wild Animals I Have Known" made him famous. Mrs. Thompson suggested the cover, the fascinating marginal designs and the mechanical make up of the book, besides assisting her husband on the literary work. She is an enthusiastic writer and an independent thinker. It is generally credited that this new book of hers is to be something worth while.

The fad among Parisiennes these days is ballooning. The rage is not confined to the aristocracy, but adventure loving women in all stations of life are embarking daily on aerial expeditions. The Duchesse d'Uzes is one of the indefatigable enthusiasts. During the recent eclipse of the sun Miss Adele Klumpke of the Paris observatory rose high above the clouds in her private balloon and imparted some useful information to the observatory. She makes almost daily ascents and furnishes meteorological data and accounts of atmospheric phenomena to the scientific world.

Miss Beatrice Tonneson, a photographer and a member of a photographic supply firm, will read a paper before the congress on photography at the Paris exposition, where she will represent the work of American women in that profession.

Miss Josephine Mulford, the second Betsy Ross of America, who made with her own hands the largest American flag in the world, did not live to see it presented to the nation, as she had hoped it would be, by popular subscription. Miss Mulford conceived the idea of making the great historical flag during the Spanish-American war.

It was to be JOSEPHINE MULFORD, large enough to be flown from the top of Washington monument without seeming insignificant. The flag, now completed, is 65 feet wide and 100 feet long. Subscriptions are being received daily by Dr. J. E. Brown of Morristown, N. J.

The United States industrial commission has appointed Miss Gail Laughlin to investigate the servant girl problem. Miss Laughlin has always taken great interest in the servant class and has her own ideas on the question. She believes that the fundamental trouble with the hired girl question is the matter of hours. They should be so regulated that the woman knows when her work begins and when it ends. Miss Laughlin is a graduate of Wellesley, class of '94, and of the Cornell Law school in 1898.

To Take Hair from a Hide.

It is an easy matter to remove the hair from a hide of any kind, by soaking it in lime water, that is, water in which a small quantity of lime has been slaked. In a few days the hair will be loosened so that it may be scraped off very easily. The hide is then well soaked in water and soap, and after good rinsing it is spread out and fastened at the edges to keep it smooth, and when dried is what is commonly called raw hide.

Town Too Valuable to Live In.

A gold mine has been located on one of the streets of Keswick, Shasta county, Cal., and there are indications of an oil vein in another. The population will soon have to move away. The town is altogether too valuable merely to be lived in.

Wheat Crop of Northwest.
Minnesota alone produces approximately 80,000,000 bushels of wheat, or about one-third-seventh of the total production of the world. Of this she is able to export two-thirds. MAKES TAXPAYERS SMILE WITH DELIGHT

RUNNING EXPENSES OF THE CITY HAVE DECREASED.

Assessments Levied Are $18.04 Per Thousand as Against $20.42 Last Year—The Policy of the Present Administration is One of Retrenchment and Reform.

The running expenses of the city of Janesville are not on the increase if the recent property assessment is taken as a basis.

In 1899 the assessed valuation of city property was $4,536,976 and in 1900 $4,556,439 showing an increase in valuation amounting to $19,463.

In 1899 the assessment levied for running expenses amounted to $20.24 per thousand and this year it is about $18.04 per thousand, a decrease in the taxes of $2.20 on a thousand which will make a large difference in the amount that the large property owners will have to pay.

Mayor Richardson in his annual message advocated a reduction in the taxes this year and his ideas are evidently being carried out with a saving to the property owners.

The policy of the present city administration has been one of retrenchment and all of the improvements advocated have been kept within the set limits with the object of keeping down taxes.

One thing that may have helped in the reduction of taxes is the fact that the city has no large judgment for damages caused by injuries received on account of defective sidewalks, the administration making it a point to see that poor sidewalks are repaired, or new ones built as soon as they are reported to be in bad shape.

The reduction in the tax assessment this year will be highly appreciated.

DR. SAMUEL H. GISH DIED LAST NIGHT

LONG ILLNESS AND INFIRMITIES OF OLD AGE CAUSE.

Opened a Dentist's Office in Janesville in 1866 and Made a Wide Reputation for Skill in His Profession—Was a Prominent Citizen—Many Will Mourn His Death.

Dr. Samuel H. Gish, the oldest dentist in practice in this city died this morning at his home 151 South Third street. The end came about 2:30 o'clock after a long illness caused by the infirmities of old age.

The deceased was born in Lancaster, Pa., April 27, 1819, making him eighty-one years of age at the time of his death.

The ancestry of the family can be traced back to the old Guise family of Europe. He was educated in the Lancaster county schools and the Stroudsburg Academy of Monroe county, Pa., and graduated from the Philadelphia Medical College in the class of 1851. He practiced for several years in Elizabethtown, Pa., and came to Janesville in 1866, where he opened a dentist office and soon gained a wide reputation for skill in his profession. He continued in active practice until a few months ago when ill health forced him to cease his labors.

Dr. Gish was twice married, first to Miss Sarah Fredrick, who died in 1864, leaving five children. In 1868 he married Miss Jennie McNeal, who survives him.

Dr. Gish was a member of the Court Street M. E. church and was a finely educated man. In his death Janesville loses one of her best citizens and a prominent practitioner.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon. Interment will be at Oak Hill cemetery.

ANOTHER TRESTLE VICTIM

John Franny, a laborer, severely injured this morning.

John Franny, a laborer whose home is in Chicago, was badly injured this morning about 8:30 o'clock while at work on the new trestle at Monterey which is being built by the Janesville & South-Eastern railroad. Franny was at work on the ground under the trestle, when in some way a piece of 4x6 timber was knocked off the trestle and fell about 25 feet, hitting him squarely on top of the head and cutting a gash two inches long, rendering him unconscious for a quarter of an hour. At first it was thought that the man was killed, but he was afterward restored to consciousness.

Dr. Joe Whiting was called and found a cut on the man's head which had penetrated to and injured the skull. That the blow didn't kill Franny is a wonder. No serious results are expected by the doctor, but the man will be laid up for some time.

LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS..

VANGUARD IS REPULSED.

Japanese Have 150 Killed or Wounded.

RUSSIANS CAPTURE FORTS.

Ten Thousand Chinese Who Were Garrisoning the Forts Fled—Allies Now Far Along Pekin Road—Chinese Are Cowardly.

Tientsin, Aug. 2.—It is reported that the Japanese vanguard have been repulsed and 150 of them killed or wounded. The Russians are reported to have captured some forts ten miles from Tientsin, in the direction of Pekin. Ten thousand Chinese, who were garrisoning the forts, fled.

Marching on Pekin.

Brussels, Aug. 2.—M. De Favereau, minister of foreign affairs, has received the following dispatch, dated Shanghai, Aug. 1, from M. de Carrière de Marchienne, secretary of the Belgian legation, now acting as chargé d'affaires of Belgium at Shanghai:

"The allies are marching on Pekin. They are eighteen miles from Tientsin, and should reach Pekin in eight days. All the Europeans have taken refuge in the inner inclosure of the imperial city."

RUSSIAN ADMIRAL COMMANDS.

This Guarantees the Assistance of Russia.

Washington, Aug. 2.—The march on Pekin has begun, and the allied troops will not turn back until there is a government in China capable of maintaining its international obligations. This government has not positive official information as to the exact date when the international column left Tientsin, but it believes that the arrangements have been carried out and that the column is now marching toward Pekin under the general command of the Russian admiral, Alexieff. By placing the Russian admiral in command the allies have settled the first point of difference and secured the prompt help of Russia in this undertaking for the immediate relief of the legations. Russia has greater interests to protect than the other powers, and has a larger army in China. Admiral Alexieff is also the ranking officer in the allied armies. General Chaffee has instructions to co-operate heartily with the other commanders, but so far as possible to keep his American force in a compact body.

Choate Sees Salisbury.

Ambassador Choate spent several hours during the night in conference with Lord Salisbury, and it is believed they came to a thorough understanding as to the course that will be pursued by the United States and England. Lord Salisbury expressed himself as being anxious that the advance should begin as soon as the allies were ready, and that a cablegram having been received that they were awaiting the word that it was given by each power represented at Taku.

Lo Feng Lu Objects.

The Chinese minister, Lo Feng Lu, made a strong objection to Lord Salisbury against the advance on Pekin, but no attention was paid to him. He even, in a veiled manner, threatened that an advance would mean the imperiling the lives of all the foreigners left alive in Pekin, but his warning fell on heedless ears. He said:

"If the allies move their great army against Pekin they will probably destroy the dynasty and precipitate the murder of all the foreigners in the empire."

China Declares War.

The fact that Sheng, the director of Chinese telegraphs, has notified the powers that the Tsung-li-Yamen will hereafter refuse to receive messages in cipher or to transmit telegrams that are not in plain language is taken to mean that China realizes that she is at war with the world and that she may as well begin at once to use warlike measures.

The Chinese are strongly intrenched at Wang Tsun, from which position, however, it is believed they can be ejected without great difficulty.

Japanese in a Hurry.

The Japanese for weeks have been rushing preparations for the advance, and are better prepared than any of the allies to push forward. They have planned the capture of Wang Tsun, where they will establish a base of supplies, for which they have been pushing forward for ten days enormous quantities of munitions of war, in trains, carts and junks.

The main advance is being made from Tientsin, but another will be begun from Shai-Kwan-Kai, north of Taku, and which is at the mercy of the allied fleets.

TELLS OF PEKIN SIEGE.

Chicago Record Correspondent Gets First Story from the City.

Chefoo, Aug. 2.—(Via Shanghai, Aug. 3.)—Dr. Robert Colman, Jr., the staff correspondent of The Chicago Record in Pekin, who had not been heard from since June 12, sends the following dispatch:

"Pekin, July 21.—Baron von Ketteler, the German minister, was murdered by Chinese troops, and his secretary wounded June 20, while on his way to the Tsung-li-yamen. The foreign residents are besieged in the British legation, and have been under a daily fire from artillery and rifles. The cowardice of the Chinese fortunately prevented them from making successful rushes. Our losses are sixty killed and seventy wounded. The Chinese losses exceed 1,000."

"There has been no word from the outside world. Food is plentiful, such as it is—rice and horseflesh. Yesterday, under a flag of truce, a message was sent by Yung Lu, asking if Sir Claude MacDonald, the British minister, would consent to a truce. The minister replied he was willing, provided the Chinese came no closer. The shell firing then ceased and everything is now quiet."

"We hope that, having defeated the Chinese, relief is nearing us. We are all exhausted with constant standing on guard, fighting, building barricades and digging trenches both night and day."

"All the legations except the British are utterly wrecked by shot and shell. The Austrian, Italian, Belgian and Holland buildings are burned to the ground. The British legation is also much shattered. The United States marines still hold a vital position on the city wall commanding the legations."

"After a brilliant sortie on the night of July 3, Capt. Myers succeeded in driving back the Kansuh mounted troops. During the fight Capt. Myers was slightly wounded. Secretary Squiers of the United States legation deserves the greatest credit for his services throughout the siege. His military experience and energy are invaluable. Many flags and rifles were captured by Capt. Myers."

"We fear that treachery is possible when the defeated Chinese troops enter the city. Meanwhile we are living in intense anxiety and hoping for early relief."

Flight Begins from Capital.

Shanghai, Aug. 2.—The Chinese have repaired the railway from Pekin to Pao Ting Fu, and are busy removing the treasures from the palace to an ancient stronghold beyond Pao Ting Fu on hand-propelled trucks. A general exodus of officials from Pekin is in progress.

Those engaged in the attack on the legations or in inciting the Boxers are fleeing.

Girl Breaks Her Neck.

La Salle, Ill., Aug. 2.—Ella Regan, in attempting to escape from an officer, jumped from a passenger train four miles east of this city and broke her neck. Miss Regan, who was 16 years of age, escaped from the Children's home in Chicago about ten days ago. She came to the home of Charles Weber in this city, where she was sent on trial some months ago, but having proved unsatisfactory was returned to the Chicago institution. The authorities of the institution sent Officer Meadows after the girl. Meadows was returning with his captive to Chicago when she in the presence of fifty passengers leaped to her death.

Mayor Hugo's Title Clear.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 2.—The Supreme court handed down a decision in the Duluth mayoralty contest, confirming T. W. Hugo, republican, as mayor. Henry Truelsen was the democratic candidate, and for several days after the election last spring both parties claimed a victory. A second count of the votes gave Hugo a majority over Truelsen, who took the contest into the courts because of irregularities in marking ballots.

—MISS MARY GOMES, Aptos, Cal., July 31, 1898.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—After receiving your letter I began the use of your remedies, taking both Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier. I am now regular every month and suffer no pain. Your medicine is the best that any suffering girl can take."—MISS MARY GOMES, Aptos, Cal., July 6, 1899.

FROM PRINCE TO PAUPER.

Edward Leon Dwyer Enlists as Marine to Escape Want.

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 2.—Having run the gamut from the luxury of the millionaire to the box car of the hobo, with all the experiences between, Edward Leon Dwyer of Torrington, Conn., has enlisted here in the service of the United States as a marine.

Dwyer was at one time one of the biggest speculators in New York. He bought wheat by the hundred thousand bushels and when he sold it lost heavily. In 1896 he astonished Chicago by trying to corner wheat with a million bushel purchase, but again he lost.

In 1895 he married the Duchesse de Castalucia, an American girl who had married an Italian duke and returned to this country after the duke died and left her $7,000,000. The marriage took place in Rock Lodge, Fla., and among the guests was Richard Croker, the Tammany "boss." When Dwyer's wife died she left him $250,000 and a group of islands off the coast of Maine, which he sold for a large sum. In a short time his money was gone and he was adjudged a bankrupt in New York in May, 1899.

Then his worst troubles began, for he lost his friends. Last January he was active in promoting a scheme to open silver mines in Mexico, where he had formerly been a prosperous railroad builder, and where there was $1,500,000 in sight, but the scheme fell through. Then Dwyer went to Portland, Ore., but a few weeks ago decided to come East. He got as far as this city, and was content to do laboring work to get food.

JESTER FOUND NOT GUILTY.

Verdict in His Now Celebrated Trial.

THE OLD MAN IS UNMOVED.

Crowd Applauds Finding and Congratulates Jester, Who Simply Says "God Bless You"—Jester Was the Coolest Man Present.

New London, Mo., Aug. 1.—Alexander Jester is free. For thirty years a cloud has hung like a pall over him, but his heart's desire is now attained. On the sixth ballot he was acquitted of the charge of murdering Gilbert Gates. The first was three for hanging and nine for acquittal. The second, third, and fourth ballots were the same. On the fifth ballot one of the three joined the ranks of the majority, and the sixth ballot freed forever the accused. The jury discussed the case all the afternoon, and it was understood that they could not agree. At 8:47 the courthouse bell rang out on the night air. It was a signal for a grand rush to the old temple of justice. Judge Eby watched the jury file slowly in. With suppressed excitement the audience waited to hear the words that were to bind or loosen the old prisoner forever. The foreman, Joseph Barry, handed a slip of paper to Judge Eby, and he read this verdict: "We, the jury, find Alexander Jester not guilty." For a few seconds all was still as death, then the audience rose as one man and almost leaped into the air. A mighty shout went up and fairly shook the stone walls. Harvey Jester and William Hill, Jester's two sons, were beside him when the message of freedom was read. They rose with the rest and shook hands with him warmly. Many crowded about him to congratulate him. If any new emotion dwelt in Alexander Jester's breast, no man could tell it by his countenance, except, perhaps, by a faint smile. He was the coolest man in the courthouse. He accepted the congratulations of his friends with perfect composure, almost akin to indifference. His daughter Alice was not in the room. Slowly he turned and walked down the aisle, supported by his faithful sons. They descended the stairway and walked to the Alford hotel. At every step the trio was interrupted by congratulations. When acquitted, Jester said to a friend near him, "God bless you," in a real old Southern camp-meeting tone. The bell rang while the churchfolk were in the midst of their prayer meeting, and the significant sound came near causing a complete exodus. Asked about his plans, Jester said: "I am subject to the orders of my son, William."

ROILED PEAS.—Shell the peas just before using. Do not wash them, but throw them into a kettle of boiling water as soon as possible after they have all been shelled. Add a teaspoonful of salt to the water to prevent the shells from bursting. Boil rapidly from 10 to 20 minutes, according as the fruit is young or well advanced.

Walking to Work

Is the only way in which the business woman, employed in store or office, can get open air exercise. It is any wonder that she often grows pale and thin and develops a tendency to "weak lungs." Whenever there is pain in breathing, soreness of the chest, obstinate cough, bleeding from the lungs or any other symptoms of disease of the respiratory organs, begin the use of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and continue the use until cured. Ninety-eight in every hundred who have used "Golden Medical Discovery" for "lung trouble," have been perfectly and permanently cured.

"I was very sick indeed," writes Mrs. Mollie Jacobs, of Fenton, Kent Co., Delaware, "and our family doctor said I had consumption. I thought I must die soon for I felt so awful. I had a bad cough, spit blood, and was very short of breath. I had pains in my chest and right lung, also had dyspepsia. Before I took your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets' I was so weak I could not sweep a room, now I can do a small washing. I feel like a new person."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure heart-burn.

THE BOERS MEET REVERSES.

Hunter Reports the Surrender of 1,200 as Prisoners.

MANY BOER GUNS ARE LOST.

Wreck of Supply Train Kills Thirteen of the British—Accident Is Caused by the Burgers' Tearing Up the Rails Near Frederiksdorp.

Pretoria, Aug. 2.—Lord Roberts has telegraphed to the war office as follows: "Hunter reports 1,200 more Boers surrendered yesterday, with Commandants Rouse and Fontein, while Commandants Deploy, Potgieter, and Joubert surrendered to Brance Hamilton, who collected 1,200 rifles, 653 ponies, and an Armstrong gun. Lieutenant Anderson, a Danish officer in the Staats artillerie, also surrendered. Oliver, with five guns and a number of burghers, broke away in the Harri-smith district, but Hunter expects the total prisoners will amount to 4,000. An unfortunate accident occurred near Frederiksdorp on the Krugersdorp-Potchefstroom railway. The enemy had torn up rails, and a supply train, escorted by the Shropshires, was derailed, thirteen being killed and thirty-nine injured, although a special patrol had been ordered to prevent trains from passing. A special inquiry has been ordered to ascertain why the order was disobeyed."

A correspondent with Gen. Hunter's force at Slapkrans says: "The Winburg and Senekal commands are now arriving, about 600 men. Gen. Roux has arrived, and also the commandant of the Wepster commando. It will take several days to get all in. There is a continuous stream of wagons for seven miles up the valley road. All the leaders have surrendered. The prisoners include foreign artillerists."

Rumor of Botha's Surrender.
The Boers are retreating north. They were shelled by Hamilton north of Pretoria. There was a slight skirmish. Rumors of the surrender of General Botha are current here.

Will Retreat to Lydenburg.
Lourenco Marques, Aug. 2.—The Boers have evacuated Machadodorp, and it is reported, are preparing to retreat to Lydenburg, to which place they have completed telegraphic communication.

Enormous Cost of the War.
London, Aug. 2.—During the debate in the House of Commons to-day on the bill for a supplementary war loan of £8,500,000, Sir William Vernon-Harcourt, Liberal, said that, owing to the existence of three fragmentary budgets, he was unable to conclude at what the government figured the cost of the war. He estimated that it would be nearer £80,000,000 than £60,000,000.

Man Bound and Robbed.
Toledo, O., Aug. 2.—At Moore's Corners John Moore, who lived alone, was aroused from his sleep by four masked men, who demanded $400 he had received on Monday on a mortgage. Moore told them where to find it, and after they had secured the money they bound him because he showed fight. After throwing Moore on the bed and piling a feather tick and quilt on him the robbers set fire to the bed. They left, supposing that they had finished their work, but providence interfered. The paper had been picked up outside and was damp with dew. It failed to burn long, and thus Moore was saved from a horrible death. He gnawed the cords from his arm and regained his liberty.

Wreck Fells Train Robbers.
Sparta, Wis., Aug. 2.—An attempt was made to rob the Pioneer limited Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul train. Six masked men seized and bound the telegraph operator at Raymore, ten miles east, and muffled the semaphore light. The train was an hour and a half late on account of a small wreck at Reesville, and reaching Raymore, as it did, at daybreak, the highwaymen decided not to carry out their intentions.

Dear Sir: Some days since a package of your GRAIN-O preparation was left at my office. I took it home and gave it a trial, and I have to say I was very much pleased with it, as a substitute for coffee. We have always used the best Java and Mocha in our family, but I am free to say I like the GRAIN-O as well as the best coffee I ever drank.

WONDERFUL NEW RIFLE.

Automatic Weapon to Fire Seven Hundred Shots a Minute.

A new military rifle that will make a Mauser look like a flintlock musket has just been perfected by an American, and a company with a capital of $6,000,000 has been organized to manufacture the weapon on a colossal scale, says the New York World. The inventor is Dr. Samuel S. McClean, a physician of Cleveland, who is now staying at the Astor House.

The fundamental principle of Dr. McClean's invention is the utilization of the waste gases of the discharge to reload and fire the gun automatically. The Maxim rapid fire guns and a new rifle designed for the Italian army are operated on a somewhat similar principle, but in Dr. McClean's gun the waste gas is taken from the muzzle instead of from a vent at the breech, which results in absolutely neutralizing all recoil of the piece, thus greatly increasing its accuracy and relieving the soldier from all stress and fatigue incident to "kick."

The speed and power of the new arm are a little short of miraculous, and with cartridges fed in on a belt a maximum rate of 700 shots a minute has been reached, the bullets each striking a 1,700 pound blow at the muzzle velocity. With the magazine loaded, all the soldier has to do is to pull the trigger once, and the rifle does the rest, spouting lead until the magazine is exhausted.

A special exhibition of the infantry rifle was recently made at Cleveland before General Miles, who was astounded by the speed, power and accuracy of the piece.

Plan to Stop Spread of Consumption.

Believing that railway carriages are greatly responsible for the spread of consumption, the German health department has resolved on making a reform, says the New York Post. The ceilings of the carriages are to be varnished, and all corners likely to harbor dust are to be abolished. The tapestry is to be of plain material and devoid of embroidery, the favorite haunt of dust and microbes. The cushions will be movable, so that they can easily be changed from carriage to carriage, which will enable the door to be properly kept clean.

Sampling Japanese Coal.

Twelve samples of Japanese coal have been received at the war department for test with a view to ascertaining its suitability for the purpose of the quartermaster's department in China and the Philippines, says the Washington Star. So far as the tests have gone they have demonstrated that the coal compares favorably with the product of American mines and will meet the needs of the department.

New Jersey Icehouse Burns.

New York, Aug. 2.—An icehouse, belonging to Sheriff Peter Hopper of Passaic county, New Jersey, was destroyed by fire, causing a loss of $40,000. Paterson is in Passaic county and a report was circulated that the sheriff's property had been burned by anarchists, but Mr. Hopper said that, while he did not know how the fire started, he did not believe the anarchists had had anything to do with it.

Explosion on the Alameda.

San Francisco, August 2.—An explosion of oil and benzine in the engine room of the steamer Alameda caused by the accidental dropping of a lamp fatally burned Matthew Hamilton, chief boiler-maker of the Risdon Iron works, and severely injured Alex. Strong, who was assisting him in repairing the vessel's boilers. Hamilton died in great agony several hours after the accident.

Warrant Was for a Dead Man.

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 2.—When the court officer went to the drug store at John and 6th streets to serve a warrant on T. L. Grave, charging him with selling cocaine without making a proper entry in his books he found that his warrant was for the arrest of a dead man. Grave died a year ago and since then his widow and sons have run the store.

Californians to Fight to a Finish.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 2.—Al Neil and Jim Trimble have been matched by the Agricultural Society of San Jose to fight to a finish in the Garden City on October 11. If the battle is permitted to take place, it will be the first of its kind held in the state in years, all contests having been for a limited number of rounds.

Mrs. Wu Goes to Cape May.

Washington, August 2.—Mrs. Wu, wife of the Chinese minister here, left this morning for Cape May, N. J. She was accompanied by her son, Chao Chin. The party will be gone about a week. Minister Wu will remain in Washington.

NICARAGUA SEIZES CANAL.

Government Claims Company's Rights Are Abrogated.

Managua, Nicaragua, Aug. 2.—The government of Nicaragua has taken possession of the property of the Maritime Canal company and removed the company's cars, rails and property to the interior from Greytown, under article 54 of the constitution.

New York, Aug. 2.—This is the time for assembling the Nicaraguan congress in regular session. One subject to come up was that confirming the decision of the courts and the official declaration of the minister of public works that the time granted to the Maritime Canal company of Nicaragua, whose headquarters are in New York, in which to construct an interoceanic ship canal across Nicaragua, had expired, and that the concession to that company is null and void. It is probable that the seizure of the company's property has been made in conformity with the decision and declaration above mentioned, possibly re-enforced by congressional action.

LAKE CRAFT IN COLLISION.

Schooner and Steamer Come Together and Two Lives Are Lost.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 2.—The schooner J. S. Richards was sunk in the Detroit river in a collision with the steamer John W. Moore and two sailors on the schooner were drowned. The Richmond was in tow of the tug Cressel and was loaded with pig iron. When off Walkerville the vessel and the Moore crashed together and the schooner soon filled. Two of the sailors were sleeping in the forecastle and they were either killed when the boats met or the vessel sank before they could escape from their quarters. The Moore continued on her way. The Richards is an old-time schooner, 250 tons, 138 feet long, built in 1869, and hails from Buffalo. The John W. Moore is a steel boat, 1,689 tons, 246 feet long. She hails from Cleveland. The sailors drowned were John Ives of Sandusky and Jack Kelly of Rochester, N. Y.

A MEASURE OF MERIT

Janesville Citizens Should Weigh Well This Evidence.

Proof of evidence lies in the merit. Convincing evidence in Janesville is not the testimony of strangers; but the endorsement of Janesville people.

That's the kind of proof given here The statement of a Janesville citizen

Mr. L. Lawrence, of 408 S. Franklin St., engineer at the Janesville Electric Light Co., says;

"Seven years ago I injured my back by falling through a bridge near Afton, into the Rock river. I was on a traction engine, its weight broke through, and the whole thing went into the stream. Since that time my back has ached by spells, sometimes very severely. If I caught cold it settled in my kidneys and if I brought a strain on my back lifting, the result was a bad backache and sharp twinges of pain in my loins. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the People's drug store and after I used them I was free from backache. I am in better health than at any time since falling through the bridge."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-McMullen Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

THE RESCUE OF HELEN RAYMOND

"I remember," said Doc, "about 20 years ago, when I was working on the Half Diamond E ranch in the White river valley. About five miles below the ranch was the camp of old Sitting Bull, the famous Sioux warrior who was killed in the Wounded Knee battle in 1890. His camp was in the brush about two yards from the trail, and the weary traveler could not see it until he stood before it."

"It was in June, and the night was dark and cloudy. I was on my way home from the round up, and as I was riding slowly through the woods I heard a peculiar cry that came in the direction of Sitting Bull's camp. I stopped and listened for a moment, and then I plainly heard the voice of a woman. 'Help, help!' I knew what was up, but I was yet six miles from the camp, and unless I would be there in a very short time it would be too late. I spurred Jaronamou (my horse), and on, on, I flew like the wind. When I came out of the woods and over a little hill, I could see the campfire of Sitting Bull and heard the warcries of a thousand Sioux warriors, as it sounded to me."

"I gave rein to Jaronamou and spurred him once more, and in a few minutes I stood within 20 yards of the warriors. Before me were several thousand Indians dressed in war paint, all sitting in a circle. I stopped and watched them for a moment. Sioux chiefs were holding a consultation, while the warriors—2,000 braves—were awaiting instructions from the man of war."

"In the center of the circle there was a large bonfire, and beside the bonfire sat a beautiful young maiden. She had perhaps seen 18 summers. I had stood there but a few minutes when she saw me. I gave her a signal that I would save her. Just then Sitting Bull arose and said to his fellow warriors, 'Oh, ye warriors brave, the Messiah has sent word to you and I to roast this palefaced devil before the dawn of day.'"

"I did not wait to hear more, as there was no time to lose in order to save the life of the fair young maiden, and as they thought the Messiah was near them it would be the best chance to save the girl. I gave rein to Jaronamou and spurred him in the flanks, and in a second I was rushing madly toward the girl. I grasped her by the arm and raised her to the saddle. Before the Sioux's 2,000 braves overcame their amazement I was riding swiftly over the prairie with the fair young maiden in my arms."

"I kept up this gait until I thought it would be safe to rest for a little while. I rode about ten yards away from the road and dismounted. I was there but a few minutes when I heard the tramping of horses' hoofs and the warcries of the Sioux, but I was in the ambush, and I knew I could not be seen by them. In a minute more they were dashing madly by us."

"After they had dashed by us the young maiden said in a voice so meek and mild, 'Doc, are we safe?'"

"Yes, we are safe," said I. "But how came you to know my name?"

"Well, Doc, don't you remember the time when we used to play in papa's yard under the large shade tree down in Missouri?"

"Why, Helen Raymond, is it you?"

"Yes, Doc, it is I, and when I saw you I knew I was saved, for this is the third time that you have risked your own life to save mine."

"Now, Helen, tell me quick. How did those cruel Indians get you away down in Missouri?"

"Well, to make a long story short, Doc, about three weeks ago one evening I was standing on the veranda of my father's house when Buffalo Bill and about 20 scouts rode by. One of the men turned and came in our yard. He asked me for a drink. I went into the house and got him a glass of water. When I handed it to him, he pointed a six shooter at me and said, 'If you utter a word, you are dead.' He grabbed me and swung me on the saddle and rode away at a break-neck speed. After riding a few hours we came to a camp. Here the man took a camping outfit and drove for three weeks, when we arrived at the Niobrara river. It was about sundown when we got there. We were there but a few minutes when we saw a band of Indians riding toward us. He knew if he should stay that he would be killed, so he mounted his best horse and rode in the opposite direction from the way the Indians were coming. The Indians took me and told me they were going to take me before the man of war, and that I would soon be killed. It was two days riding. When we arrived at White river, or the man of war's camp, it was about half an hour before you came."

"Do you know the name of the man that stole you away from home?" I said.

"Yes. He told me his name was Dave Tutt."

"Oh, yes, I know him well, but when we meet it will either be Dave Tutt or Doc Middleton. But we must lose no more time here, as it is yet 20 miles to Fort Sheridan, and we must be there by dawn."

"I mounted Jaronamou and took Helen in my arms, and we arrived at Fort Sheridan at 5 o'clock. Here we were met by Helen's father, Mr. Raymond. The meeting was indeed a happy one. Mr. Raymond had tricked Dave Tutt to the Niobrara river. There he lost his trail and accidentally came to Fort Sheridan."

"Mr. Raymond handed me a roll of bills, but I told him I did not care for the money, as such things as that often happened in the west. A few days ago, when I was in St. Louis, I met Miss Raymond, and she is now the wife of a wealthy banker at St. Louis."—Exchange.
